Dear WV RN Board,

This letter is to verify that Jane Doe completed graduate level advanced neonatal clinical pharmacology at State University School of Nursing in Spring 2020. In addition to the 3-credit hour course in advanced neonatal clinical pharmacology, Ms. Doe also completed all pharmacology-related experiences in the neonatal nurse practitioner track, including 600 clinical hours (14 credit hours) in Advanced Theory and Clinical Practice in Neonatal Nursing. Neonatal Pharmacology is interwoven in the Advanced Theory and Clinical Practice clinical courses, totaling 17 credit hours of pharmacology, and exceeding 600 clock hours.

If there is any additional information needed, please contact me at deanofnursing@stateuniversity.edu.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mary Doe Dean.
